Bolzano, the gateway to the Dolomites welcomes you

within its walls, its alleys, its castles and its museums.

Between the Talvera and Isarco tributaries and the junction of the Adige River, stands the city, the crossroads between Mediterranean and Central European cultures.

In this prosperous land, the Tourist Board delivers to its visitors the stories of a city that is alive, changing, international, but with strong ties to its traditions, also evident in the evening we are about to share together.

Traditions that are revived in the historic stores and inns, nestled among the alleys that tell the story of a medieval and mercantile Bolzano. Between the slopes of the Colle and the sunny hills of St. Magdalena, its traditional agricultural customs come to life.

Our city has always embraced travelers from all over the world.

Those who pass through Bolzano, even for a few hours, are swept into an experience that embraces them in its squares, characteristic markets and the natural wonders that surround it.

Bolzano is a city that encourages you to pause and fully savor every moment, both through your senses and its cuisine. We, as the Tourist Board, strive daily to convey to all visitors, both newcomers and those returning, the warmth and excitement that can be experienced here.

This evening, we are pleased to support the University of Bolzano and welcome you as academics, professors and researchers to this event. With our activities, we hope to have conveyed to you some of the magic of Bolzano and we look forward to welcoming you back as visitors.
